

CARBONDALE.

DIED OF APOPLEXY.

Mrs. Edward Gorman Passed Away Suddenly Yesterday Afternoon. Shortly after noon yesterday Mrs. Edward Gorman, of Brooklyn street, died of apoplexy. She was a great shock to her friends, as she has always enjoyed good health. She was only 35 years old, and was born in this city. Deceased was a woman of many virtues and thoroughly domestic in her inclinations. Four children survive her, the eldest being 15 years of age. Mrs. Gorman was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hart, of Greenfield road. Four sisters and two brothers also mourn her loss. The sisters are: Mrs. John Lamb, of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Mrs. L. H. Henry, of Belmont street; Mrs. Patrick Conlon, of Greenfield road, and Miss Bridget Hart, who resides with her parents. The brothers are Thomas Hart, of Mayfield, and Mark Hart, of Schenectady, N. Y.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.

The repeated sounding of the general fire alarm last night at 9 o'clock brought out the hose companies in double-quick time and led people to believe there was a big fire. It proved to be only a small carpenter shop belonging to the Delaware and Hudson company and situated just above the locomotive shops. The structure was ruined before the flames were extinguished.

ENTERED THE HOSPITAL.

Frank Collins, of Jermyn, who was so seriously injured in an accident on the Traction company line about six weeks ago, was admitted to Dr. Wheeler's private hospital yesterday. For a long time it was feared he would lose a leg. The skin has failed to grow over one of the wounds and skin-grafting will probably have to be resorted to.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Milton Lewis has accepted a situation in the Erie freight house, in this city. Mrs. E. A. Morgan, of Park street, is entertaining Mrs. Lucy Van Kirk, of Scranton. C. S. Alexander has returned from Baltimore. G. W. Hughes has been elected treasurer of Cambrian Lodge of Odd Fellows, vice Joseph Robinson, resigned. Mrs. J. J. Reynolds is in Hazleton. Mary O'Grady is moving her millinery establishment from Salem avenue to the store room recently vacated by Henry Ebbert, who is leaving the city. Mrs. Robert Copeland, of Belmont street, is on the sick list. Miss Bertha Corson, of Bethany, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Yale Richmond, of Cemetery street. Julius Moses was in Scranton yesterday. James Place, of Mitchell avenue, is suffering with grip. Miss Libbie O'Boyle, of Woodlawn avenue, is visiting friends in Scranton. Frank Carpenter, one of Carbondale's best known residents, was married in New York city Wednesday to Miss Linda P. Seely, of Afton, N. Y. The bride has been teaching school in a Long Island town. Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter will arrive home today. The Germania Singing society of this city will attend the twenty-fifth anniversary of the organization of the Germania at Hawley on next Monday night.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

In response to the call of the committee who has been negotiating with firm who are seeking a location, about two hundred citizens met in Enterprise hall last evening. Attorney H. D. Carey was chairman and H. A. Williams secretary. Communications were read from three silk weaving firms. In two the writers proposed to come to Jermyn shortly to see the town and the committee. The other firm made a plain proposition. They have three hundred and fifty looms and employ three hundred adult hands. They want the people of Jermyn to erect a two story brick building for which they will give bonds and pay five per cent. interest. Speeches were made by F. Goldman, H. C. Wheeler, Elias H. Hills, Thomas M. Hendricks, H. A. Williams, C. D. Winter, L. W. Hoffecker, Patrick Loughney, Jacob Hiller, Patrick Bloomer, R. T. Maxwell, Michael Egan, B. Swick and others and it was the unanimous opinion of the meeting that it was most desirable to secure the location of the three firms here if possible. Resolutions were passed authorizing the committee to make certain definite propositions to the firms and the committee promised to continue the work of looking up available lots and ascertaining the value of suitable sites in the borough. It is probable the committee will have something more definite to lay before the next meeting. Rev. M. E. Lynn, pastor of the Sacred Heart church, who for some time past has not enjoyed very good health, will go to Mexico next week, where he will remain until spring. Rev. Charles Manley, of Mount Pleasant, has charge of the parish here during the pastor's absence. Mrs. Richard Bunt, of Main street, was taken suddenly ill at noon yesterday with heart trouble. Mrs. R. Carier, of Main street, who has been ill for the past week, is slightly improved. The Ladies' Aid society of St. James' church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. T. Maxwell, of Main street.

Patrick Kilker, of Mayfield, a miner in the Glenwood shaft, was slightly injured yesterday, receiving several contusions of the body through a fall of rock. There is little if any improvement in the condition of Thomas Rick, of Main street, who has been ill for several months. Miss Mamie Moon, of L street, is quite sick. Will T. Merrick was a Carbondale visitor yesterday. Oliver Morgan, of Main street, continues to improve in health. There is a noticeable falling off of grip cases.

TAYLOR NEWS.

James Nash Laid to Rest—Pleasantly Surprised—Personal Notes.

The great respect and esteem in which the late James Nash was held was fully demonstrated yesterday afternoon by the large concourse of friends that attended the obsequies of this lamented resident. Long before the hour set for the departure of the funeral cortege his residence on Union street was filled with sympathizers and mourners. Short funeral services were held in the house, after which the cortege was taken to the Methodist Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a devoted member. The services at the church were in charge of the pastor, Rev. William Frisby, assisted by Rev. J. M. Lloyd, of the Welsh Baptist church, Revs. Mr. Frisby and Mr. Lloyd, in their remarks, made fitting reference to the exemplary character of the deceased. After the services the remains were conveyed to their last resting place in the Presbyterian cemetery. The cortege was preceded by the Lackawanna lodge, No. 113, American Protestant association; Lily lodge, No. 539, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, and Taylor Accidental fund. The pallbearers were: William Rundie, John Price, William Reese, Jesse Gangwer, David Harris, Frank Dunstone; flower bearers, John Francis and John T. Jones. Many floral offerings were given by friends of the deceased, and they presented a most beautiful appearance. The Methodist Episcopal church quartette, consisting of Mrs. John Atherton, Mrs. John Nealey, Thomas Owens and Charles Dibble, sang several beautiful selections. The committee on local institutes are requested to meet at the Taylor graded school in Grove street, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Professor James Foley is chairman of the committee. The home of Miss Bertha Williams, of South Taylor, was the scene of a most pleasant affair on Wednesday evening. The occasion was a surprise party. About fifty friends of Miss Williams were present, and although they took their hostess by surprise she soon realized her position, and made the occasion a pleasant one. Music, games, etc., were the order of the evening. A bountiful supply of refreshments were served, and at a late hour the party departed. The guests were: Misses Emma Owens, Barbara Grever, Anna McComb, Lydia Hawkins, Ada Law, Gertrude Decker, Maggie Wisby, Della Decker, Edith Merritt, Sarah Frank, Sadie Hufford, Alice Franklin, Emma Williams, Maggie Price, Olwen Howells, Susie Barron, Bessie Burgess, and Messrs. William J. Hoakins, William and Abraham Collingwood, William Bynon, John T. Jones, Fred Wilson, Percy Owens, Archie Tinklepaugh, William Herbert, William Morgans, Harry Russell, William Griffith, Henry Reese, John Daniels, Robert Barr, W. Daniels, Joseph Reese, W. H. Harris, Garfield Williams, W. H. Nicholas, D. R. Davis and Harry Hartman. Miss Maggie Hughes, of Hyde Park, was the guest of relatives in this place yesterday. An invincible commandery, No. 252, Knights of Malta, will meet this evening in their rooms in Reese's hall. Rev. Ivor Thomas, of this place, attended the funeral of Mrs. D. P. Jones, of Hyde Park, on Wednesday. Mrs. Edwin Williams, of Railroad street, was the guest of relatives in Hyde Park on Wednesday. The death rate has been unusually high in this town and vicinity during the past few months. The last called to answer the final summons was the three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Milford Morgans, of Main street. The child was very bright and loved by all. He will be missed greatly in the home circle. Mr. and Mrs. Morgans have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement. Death occurred yesterday morning. Funeral announcement later.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Thomas, of Wilkes-Barre, attended the funeral of the late James Nash yesterday.

Dangers of the Grip. The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of the dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by all druggists, Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

None of His Affair. The Mormon called placidly as he leaned against the front gate and listened to the noise of conflict which hoisted out of the house. "Aren't you frightened?" asked a neighbor. "No. My four wives are settling it among themselves. I never interfere when this dispute occurs. I simply take a vacation and enjoy myself."—Washington Star.
